RE: Legal - General Purpose Mail

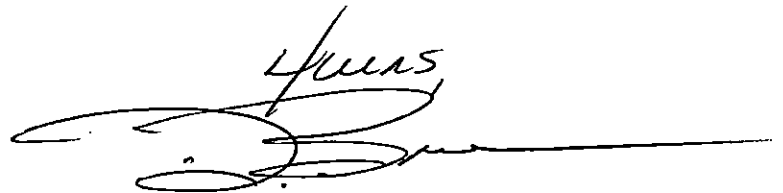

Dear Don Judge,

I write this letter to you so there will be no misunderstanding in the matter.

VDOC has implemented a policy - procedure All incoming mail will be first redirected to front desk, front desk will process the mail, and then the mail will be delivered to the Institutional Mailroom to be delivered to the inmates.

Book in mind All of the Institutions in the State, Incoming Mail must be re-routed to the Institution to be processed. This is a foreseeable problem regarding legal mail from the courts because when the Judge issue a Order June 1, 2020, I will not receive the Order within reasonable time. The Order issue demands a response within 30 days or 45 days. The New process will eat up at least 15 days. if not more.

This is my understanding of Mr. David A. Robinson, Chief of Operation Mead.

Yours,
